This form must be signed by all members

The Canadian Reiki Association is an autonomous and private body and will not involve itself with the workings of other agencies within Canada. The Corporation reserves the right to investigate, at its discretion, other similar bodies and/or agencies and apprise members on such issues if such studies may contain relevant information. The Corporation may employ outside resources such as legal counsel for definition and clarification as required.

In accepting the terms and expectations of membership in the Canadian Reiki Association, the membership applicant must sign the Code of Conduct and the Code of Ethics before membership will be considered.

1. The member understands that it is a privilege to be a member of the Canadian Reiki Association and has read the Scope of Practice and thoroughly understands what does and does not constitute a Reiki practice as prescribed by the Constitution.
2. The member will not abuse the listing of CRA membership for the purposes of disseminating non-Reiki related issues to the membership.
3. The member will, if she or he believes she would like an issue addressed by the Board of Directors, contact those persons by e-mail or registered letter.
4. The member will not transmit their issues via any social or news media avenues.
5. The member will not malign, or allow to be maligned, the work and authority of the CRA.
6. The member will respect the rights and privileges of membership and will not cause or create false assumptions about any members.
7. The member will, as she or he is able, provide information about the CRA to the public and encourage others to achieve the knowledge and skills so as to become future members.
8. The member will, if asked by a client or any member of the public, clearly explain the obligations of a Reiki practitioner as opposed to those who may practice another modality.
9. The member will, as is possible, encourage and support the goals of the CRA as described in the Mission Statement, and will, as is possible, take part in trade fairs, wellness events and any other public presentation where the practice of Reiki may be forwarded.
10. The member understands that if she or he transgresses the Code of Conduct their membership in the CRA will be permanently withdrawn without a refund of any membership dues.
11. The member understands that if she or he is withdrawn from CRA membership and refuses to acquiesce to the withdrawal, the CRA maintains the right to take legal action against the ex-member, and the ex-member will be fully responsible for all costs.

In signing this document, the member understands that she or he will not be granted membership if they have been withdrawn from any other professional body in Canada or the U.S.

Canadian Reiki Association Disciplinary Action Policy

Disciplinary Action

1. Complaints and/or concerns received via the Complaints & Concerns email address (complaints_concerns@reiki.ca) located on the CRA website (<http://www.reiki.ca/contact.htm>) or by mail to Canadian Reiki Association 24-2350 New Street, Burlington, ON L7R 4P8 or by fax to 1.866.734.4540, will be processed by the President and Vice President of the CRA within three working days of the date the President and/or Vice President received the complaint and/or concern.
2. The complaint and/or concern will be investigated by way of contacting the originator of the email by telephone or if applicable and more efficient, by email. If the complaint or concern is with respect to a registered practitioner or teacher, the practitioner or teacher will be contacted and interviewed.
3. If the complaint or concern does not involve a practitioner or teacher but does involve a procedure or function of the CRA, this will be brought to the attention of the CRA Board. If a change in procedure is required to satisfy the concern or complaint it shall be brought forth and voted on by the Board of Directors.

What action will be taken

1. Upon investigation, if the allegation is without merit, no further action to be taken.
2. Upon investigation, if the allegation is with merit, and concerns any one or more of codes 1 through 6, and/or codes 11 through 18, of the CRA Code of Ethics, a written warning letter will be mailed to the offending member.
3. Upon investigation of a second allegation against the same member, if the allegation has merit, the result will be suspension of Membership with the CRA for a 6 month period and the member's name will be added to the "Suspended and Expelled Members List" on the CRA website.
4. Upon investigation, if the allegation has merit and is a breach of codes 7, 8, 9 and/or 10 of the CRA Code of Ethics, or is an allegation reported against any one member for a third time, permanent suspension of membership will result and the member's name will be added to the "Suspended and Expelled Members List" on the CRA website.

In addition to the above actions, the CRA will

1. Add the Member's name to a list of Suspended or Expelled members maintained on the CRA website.
2. In cases of serious misconduct that represent potential serious risk to the public or practitioners, the information will be reported to the Police or other appropriate official authorities.

The Suspended and Expelled Members List

The Suspended and Expelled Members List is a text online list of all the individual practitioners or teachers that have been Suspended or Expelled from the CRA Membership.

Upon lifting of the 6 month suspension, that Member's name is removed from this list.

"Note: the Suspended and Expelled Members List is listed on the "Members Only" area of the CRA website and it is noted on the new membership application form that the member's name would appear on this list if applicable and by signing the application form they are agreeing to this action.

Educational Guidelines for Registered Teachers

ALL RT designated members MUST SIGN this form and return to the CRA.

The following guidelines must be signed and adhered to by all CRA Registered Teachers as “minimal” standards in conducting live Reiki classes. Other symbols, tools, and information above and beyond the outlined requirements are acceptable and encouraged provided they are directly related to Reiki, and the basic outlined criteria are taught in your classes. You must provide professional manuals for your students, and any additional material you hand out in class must not infringe on copyright issues.

Reiki Level One or First Degree Class

- The class must be a minimum of 8 hours long. One hour of the 8 hours may be assigned homework such as reading and further practice.
- Provide a professional quality Reiki Level I manual for each student.
- The teacher must give students their manual at the beginning of the class not at the end of the class.
- Review the history of Reiki.
- Discuss each of the 5 Reiki Principles/Precepts and emphasize how important it is for students to integrate these into their life on a daily basis.
- Give each student all the required Level One Attunements BEFORE they are engaged in any practical time such as a self-Reiki session or a practice Reiki session with another student.
- Demonstrate a Reiki self-session and have students practice the full self-healing session in class.
- Demonstrate the standard hand positions for doing a one-on-one Reiki session using a Reiki table. Before your class ends, each student must have given a full (one hour) Reiki session to another person or another student on a Reiki table.
- Demonstrate how to do a Reiki chair session. Allow practice time for the students
- The student must demonstrate to the teacher they have a clear understanding and ability to perform the hand positions on a volunteer student for a table, chair and self-reiki session prior to receiving a certificate.
- Provide a Reiki Level I certificate at the end of the class to each student.
- Your CRA designation and membership number must be on the certificate.
- Explain that all Level I students are eligible to apply for membership with the CRA as a Student Member. Direct students to the website to download the required documents which includes:

1. Scope of Practice
2. Code of Ethics
3. Disciplinary Action Policy
4. Code of Conduct
5. Case study forms (single and multi-forms)
6. Client information form

Inform students they can upgrade to Registered Practitioner once they have completed the criteria.

Reiki Level Two or Second Level

- New Students must provide their Level 1 Reiki certificate at time of enrollment.
- The Teacher will not accept the student into the class unless a Level 1 certificate has been provided.
- Provide a professional quality Reiki Level II manual for each student.
- A manual must be given to the student at the beginning of the class.
- The class must be a minimum of 8 hours long. One hour of the 8 hours may be assigned homework such as reading and further practice.
- Give each student the required Level Two Attunements BEFORE they are engaged in any practical time with the symbols or using the symbols with another student.
- The Reiki teacher may give individual attunements for each symbol prior to practice for that specific symbol. This method will be acceptable.
- Discuss the theoretical and practice use of the three traditional Reiki 2nd Degree symbols CKR, SHK, HSZSN and allow time in class for your students to practice the symbols.
- Demonstrate how to use SHK for mental/emotional healing and how to assist a client in releasing unwanted habits.
- Teach various methods of distance healing and allow time in your class for students to practice. The student must demonstrate to the teacher they have a clear understanding and the ability to draw and practice 2nd-degree symbols prior to receiving a certificate.
- Provide each student with a Reiki Level II certificate at the end of the class.
- Your CRA designation and membership number must be on your certificate
- Instruct students on what criteria is necessary to join the CRA and/or to upgrade their membership level.
- Direct non-members to the CRA website to download the documents required for membership. They include:
 - Scope of Practice
 - Code of Ethics
 - Disciplinary Action Policy
 - Code of Conduct
 - Case study forms (single and multi-forms)
 - Client information form

Explain the case study requirements for new members applying to the CRA. They must submit all twenty-four with the application. Completed case study forms will only be accepted if they were completed within the last twelve (12) months of applying.

If a student is a current Student Member of the CRA, then direct them to the upgrade requirements found in the Members Only section of the website.

Reiki Master Practitioner Level (R.M.P) (formerly known as Level III)

The following guidelines are only for the teachers who teach 4 levels of Reiki. Please be advised if you teach only three Levels of Reiki then please go directly to the guidelines for Master/Teacher and bypass these guidelines as this Reiki Master Practitioner level does not apply to you. Stating on the certificate that this is a Reiki Master Practitioner and not Reiki Master will clarify the status of this class.

- New Students to the class must provide their Level 1 & 2 certificates at time of enrollment.
- The Teacher will not accept the student into the class unless a Level 1 & 2 certificates have been Provided.
- Provide each student with a professional quality manual for the R.M.P. level at the beginning of the class.
- Remind the class a Reiki Master Practitioner is not permitted or qualified to teach any level of Reiki.
- The class must be a minimum of 8 hours long. One hour of the 8 hours may be assigned homework such as reading or further practice.
- If you are teaching an A.R.T. class than you must provide Wm. Rand's Reiki Advanced Reiki Training manual.
- Give each student their attunement for this level BEFORE they engage in any practical time.
- If this is an A.R.T. class, the attunements must be done BEFORE they engage in practical time with crystals, stones, or aura clearing (psychic surgery) or the Usui Master Symbol.
- Review Level I and II class material. Ask students if there are any questions.
- Discuss the theoretical and practical use of the traditional Reiki 3rd Degree (Master) symbol UDKM and allow time in class for your students to practice the symbol.
- Additional techniques such as Aura Clearing, the Reiki Moving Meditation and setting up a Reiki Crystal Grid, etc. may be taught "if" the teacher is familiar with these techniques.
- The student must demonstrate all techniques taught in this class to the teacher prior to receiving a certificate.
- Provide a Reiki Master Practitioner certificate at the end of the class to each student.
- Your R.T. Membership # must be on the certificate.
- Provide an Advanced Reiki Training certificate to your student if you are following Wm. Rand's A.R.T. Criteria. These certificates are obtained by the I.C.R.T.
- Remind former students who retained a Registered Student Membership on the protocol required to now upgrade to Registered Practitioner.
